ton county for the years 1911, 1912 and 1913. The totals are respectively, for 1911, $285,097.95; for 1912, $238,300.18, and for the year 1913, $375,416.12. Had the same percentage of taxation been maintained for the past three years, the state taxes paid would have been: For the year 1911, $526,605.19; for the year 1912, $444,064.83, and for the year 1913, $694,542.01.

Thus, it will be seen that the reduction in the percentage of state taxes to be paid, brought about at the equalization in August, 1911, has meant a saving to the tax-payers of Houghton county, for the three years, of $762,337.69.

Houghton county was represented before the state board of equalization in 1906 and again in 1911 by Attorney Galbraith, of Calumet, and Supervisor A. D. Edwards, of Atlantic.

These two men have been again selected by the supervisors to represent the county before the state board, and they are both busily engaged in preparing data and formulating arguments for the purpose of convincing the board that Houghton county is justly entitled to a still further reduction in the percentage of state taxes.

For many years it was contended in the lower peninsula that the copper mines of the upper peninsula were over-assessed.

In this they were supported by the so-called Finland report, made at the special instance of the state tax commission, in 1911, and also by the findings of State Tax Commissioner Kearney, of Ann Arbor, and State Geologist Allen, of Lansing, who have recently completed independent investigations in the copper country.

The action of the state board of equalization will be watched with interest throughout the copper country, and local residents feel the members will recognize the justice of the copper country's stand.

WATER EXTENSION COMPLETE.

Improvements of Pond Water System
To Be Continued Now.

An extension of the lake water mains along Fourth street, from Pine to Spruce, has just been completed by the water department, under the direction of Superintendent Joseph Carne. About five consumers are now connected with the new main, and about ten others will be benefited thereby. The extension is about 500 feet long.

With the completion of this work, it will be possible for the water department to continue the alterations on the pond water system. More than half of the new shut off valves have already been installed and a comparatively short time will be required to complete the work and place the system in splendid condition.

Y. M. C. A. CAMPERS HOME.

Proposed Camp for High School Boys
Has Been Abandoned.

Camp O-Chip-E-Wa-kee for the younger boys of the Calumet Y. M. C. A., which has been conducted at Grand Marais near Eagle Harbor for the past two weeks under the direction of Physical Director John Johnstone and others, will be abandoned tomorrow and the forty boys who have participated in the outing are expected home tomorrow afternoon by automobile. The camp is reported to have been one of the most successful ever conducted by the association.

Although originally it was planned to follow the younger boys camp with a similar camp at the same site for older boys and high school fellows, the lack of interest has caused this latter project to be abandoned.

The fountain is now available for use and is a valuable addition to the playground equipment. Water will be supplied to the playground free of cost.

Although the Red Jacket park and playground has been opened but a few weeks, its popularity has already been demonstrated and hundreds of children daily enjoy its privileges, children who otherwise would have no playgrounds but the street and absolutely no supervision. DEER PROPERTY
OF THE STATEPrivate Preserves Without Permits
Violation of Law

Deputy Game Warden John T. MacDonald of Laurium has arrived home from a tour of inspection in the southern part of Houghton county and in Ontonagon county and reports that so far as he was able to observe the hunters and fishermen are observing the laws.

Mr. MacDonald uncovered one rather unusual case at Ontonagon. Arvid Rihiniemi, a settler, in some manner came into possession of two fawns, and despite the efforts of the warden to impress upon him the fact that the property of the state and are entitled to liberty, he continued to hold them in captivity without a state permit. Mr. MacDonald was forced to make complaint and when arraigned before Justice Willett at Ontonagon, Rihiniemi entered a plea of guilty and paid a fine of $10 and costs amounting to $3.30, also agreeing to liberate the animals forthwith.

The game warden's attention was called this week to the fact that in the woods near Painesdale, drove in a fawn, which is being given shelter by Capt. Jolly. The circumstances are different in this case, however, for the animal was injured in the chase and needs a chance to rest and recuperate before re-entering the woods. Although Capt. Jolly expresses a desire to retain the animal and will apply to Game Warden Gates for a permit to do so, he is perfectly willing to liberate it as soon as it recovers from its injuries, should his request for a permit be unsuccessful.

Mr. MacDonald made quite an extensive tour of the two counties and he reports remarkably few game law violations. Partridge are very plentiful this year, he says, and there is every indication fall hunting will be good, although the warden anticipates he will have his hands full keeping "sooners" in check, when the rabbit hunting season opens September 1, for it will be a full month before the bird hunting season opens. Naturally when a rabbit hunter and his dogs are in the woods, the temptation to kill partridge as well, is strong.

Mr. MacDonald reports there are indications all over the district the blue berry crop is a failure this year. He attributes this to late frosts, which he claims nipped the blossoms.
